Buy a Yearbook!

By: Jonathan Downing

Time is running out! The last day to buy a yearbook is April 12. You don't want to miss this as it will be our limited edition inaugural yearbook. Only 50 copies are being sold! The yearbook is currently $50 dollars.

Speakeasy Event Planning

By: Macey Carey

On Fridays, students and staff are beginning to plan for the Speakeasy event occurring on April 18. Students had a choice of four committees: Entertainment committee, Theme committee, Silent Auction committee, and Budget committee. These four teams will help put together the main event, putting hard work and touches of fun towards the Speakeasy fundraiser. Save the date, and buy your tickets early!

Kickball Sunday

By: Macey Carey

On Sunday, March 9, students and families participated in a fun kickball and picnic day at Truman Waterfront Park sponsored by the PAC. Special thanks to Mrs. Amy Andrade for planning this event.

King of Spring

By: Claire Massih

On Thursday, March 13, students participated in King of Spring. This time, all the girls in the school had to wear lanyards and stay quiet for the whole day. The boys had to try to get lanyards by catching the girls talking. The boy who collected the most lanyards won the title "King of Spring". This year the winner was King Johnny Carbaugh, and second place Knight, Reif Wallen.

Counselor's Corner

By: Brenda Huebscher

Hello Students (Grades 9-11),

This is a friendly reminder from the Counselor's Corner regarding your upcoming schedules! Course Selection:

If you haven't completed your course selection Google Form, please see me. Your input is crucial for building your schedule for next year. I will be meeting with individuals next month to review and finalize your schedules.

Dual Enrollment:

For all students interested in or currently participating in Dual Enrollment for the summer and/or fall semesters, please come see me as soon as possible. We will discuss your enrollment plans to ensure a smooth process.

Don't delay! Let's get your course selections and Dual Enrollment plans in order.

Questions? Email me at brenda.huebscher@cfk.edu.

Club News and Updates

By: Keirra Austin

Music Club

On Friday, February 7, Music Club had their first meeting. In Music Club, students get together to practice music, learn instruments, and have a good time. Mrs. Hughes is the advisor.

Art Club

Students who are in Art Club will be able to submit their art for display in upcoming newsletters. Art club is also up and running on Fridays. Mr. Hughes is the advisor, and the president is sophomore Dominik Galaz.

Bible Study Club

Did you know we have a Bible Study Club? During lunch on Fridays, students gather in the hallway to study scripture. The club does not have an official president, however students take turns leading study sessions.

Dual Enrollment Spotlight

By: Jarrett Miller

Student: George Bueno

Reason: To get my AAS, and get into the college I want. I wanted to pursue a higher education.

Signing Up: My sister and my mom guided me and helped me sign up.

Effect on High School: I have more freedom, but I do not get to see my friends as much. I made new friends in my college classes.

Scheduling is tricky but worth it.

Advice: Don't stress and have fun. Also, manage time, engage in discussions, and ask for help when needed.

Currently enrolled classes: I am taking

AMH2020: Hist of US, 1876-1945 1, MTE1002:

Intro to Marine Engineering 1, and MTE1400C:

Applied Marine Electricity 1.
