- An undergraduate student enrolled in a five-year undergraduate degree program is eligible to receive financial aid for a maximum of 10 semesters or 15 quarters.

 - Has enrollment status changed from 'Undergraduate' to 'Graduate', or
 - Enrolls in 'Graduate' level courses.
- An eligible graduate student may receive a maximum of four semesters or six quarters of funding.

Student Award Renewal

- An application is not required to renew the award. Eligibility for renewal is automatically determined at the end of the second semester, third quarter, or the equivalent of each academic year.
- Students must have earned a minimum unweighted institutional cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- For undergraduate study, students must have earned 12 credit hours per term, or the equivalent, for which the award was received. For graduate study, students must have earned 9 credit hours per term or the equivalent for which the award was received.
- File the FAFSA each academic year in time to be processed error-free by the U.S. Department of Education on or before May 15, 2025, for the 2025-26 academic year.

Failure to Meet the Minimum Renewal Requirements

- To be eligible for renewal the following year after probation, a student must have earned the required credit or clock hours and institutional cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- A student who failed to meet the requirements for renewal during a probationary period will become ineligible for funding. However, the student is eligible to apply for restoration after one academic year. An institutional cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale must be earned at the end of the second semester or third quarter of the academic year preceding the year the award is sought.

Student Award Reinstatement/Restoration

- A student who was eligible for an award but did not use the award during the previous academic year, may be eligible for reinstatement.

 - A student who applies for reinstatement/restoration must also complete a FAFSA in time to be processed error-free by May 15, 2025.

Appeal Process

An applicant who believes they have been wrongly denied has certain rights to appeal.

An applicant may appeal if he or she believes the FDOE erred in determining eligibility or failed to transfer an award. An FDOE appeal is to be filed in writing within 30 days of the date of the notice of ineligibility.

If aid is denied for failure to meet satisfactory academic progress requirements, an applicant may appeal the denial to the institution by providing proof of illness or other emergency beyond the applicant's control. An institutional academic progress appeal is to be filed in writing within 30 days of the denial letter or by the date established by the institution's financial aid office, whichever is later.

Updating Information

A recipient must notify OSFA of any change in name, address or institution attended.

A student may update information by contacting Customer Service at 888-827-2004 or logging into his or her online OSFA account:

<https://www.floridastudentfinancialaidsg.org>

Transferring from one institution to another could affect an applicant's award.

Use of an Applicant's Social Security Number/Non-discrimination Statement

The Privacy Act of 1974 requires state agencies to inform applicants of the reasons for requesting their Social Security Numbers (SSN). The FDOE requests an SSN on all applications for student financial assistance in order to correctly identify applicants, match each applicant's financial aid record with the student record at the postsecondary institution the applicant attends, and help coordinate state student aid programs with federal student aid programs.

An applicant will not be denied financial assistance for failure to disclose the SSN. Without an SSN, correct identification of an applicant's record cannot be assured and may result in an error in the award amount or a delay in the award disbursement.

Pursuant to section 1000.05, Florida Statutes, state student financial assistance is provided to eligible applicants without discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or marital status. Minority status will be considered when required by law as a condition of eligibility or selection.
